Re: Car-Freshner Corporation, et al. v. Dick's Sporting Goods, Inc., et al.
Civil Action No. 5:20-cv-00526

Dear Magistrate Judge Lovric:

Since the Parties filed their last status reports (Dkt Nos. 21 and 22), the Parties held a 90 minute meet and confer on October 30, 2020. On November 6, 2020, DICK's responded to each of the 23 (twenty- three) specific items discussed during the meet and confer and made a supplemental production of documents. The supplemental production included additional information regarding the design, sale, and marketing of the disputed products. While there were some points on which the parties have not reached a final conclusion, Plaintiffs had not reached back out to Defendants to discuss any discovery issue as of the time of this filing.

Defendants reviewed Plaintiffs' status report (Dkt No. 24) and briefly respond as follows: the parties have significantly narrowed the list of Plaintiffs' complaints. Of the eleven complaints presented by Plaintiffs today, it appears to Defendants that few, if any of the complaints, might ultimately require a decision if the Parties are unable to resolve among themselves. Defendants reserve the right to respond to the Court more fully if the Court deems Dkt. No. 24 to be a motion to compel, rather than a status report.
